

HANDBAG

in a decent tone

When I was just lying there during the recovery period at home after the umbilical hernia operation, a lot of ideas came to me. I really couldn't resist one and created this looped original elegant handbag in subtle tones and an unconventional wooden handle.

Of course, the bag is beautifully lined with black solid canvas and four pockets with yellow trim. The bag is fastened with two snaps and its bottom is reinforced with a plywood mattress to keep the perfect shape.
